

Historical Fiction Celebration: Class 5-409

When: Friday, March 9th, 8:45-10:00 am

Where: Cafeteria

Why: To celebrate and share our Historical Fiction texts that we've worked so hard to research, write, and publish.

What: Our Historical Fiction Authors' Party

How can I help my child prepare for the celebration?

- 1) Make (or buy) a food or drink special to the Ancient Complex Society that was your story setting. This can be food representative of Maya, Inca or Aztec culture.

Possible Foods/Crops/Drinks that Existed:

Maya & Aztec	Inca
Corn tortillas Bean dish Sauce from tomatoes or peppers Squash dish Sweet potato dish or stew BBQ turkey w/ green chillies Guacamole Fresh Avocado salad Guava Spicy pineapple fruit bowl Xni Pec- Red salsa Tamales Tamalitos Xocolatl-chocolate chili drink ("Mexican hot chocolate")	Quinoa salad Tamales Red bean dish Potatoes (freeze-dried) Red tomatoes & hot chili peppers Oca Yuca Sweet potatoes (Used in stews & soups) Boiled or roasted corn Chili pepper & yellow peppers Papaya & pineapple Passion fruit Seaweed

Please specify which food(s) or drink(s) your family would like to bring to the celebration:

Child's Name _____ Adult's Name _____

<https://belize-travel-blog.chaacreek.com/2017/11/mayan-food/>

<http://www.yucatanadventure.com.mx/cookingrecipes.htm>

<http://www.foodandwine.com/recipes/inca-stew-peru>

<http://www.geniuskitchen.com/recipe/inca-salad-4056#activity-feed>